"We were always confident our innovative marketing and friendly customer service would work however we are delighted with the response. We sold our first apartment within 15 minutes of the launch event so we're all over the moon!"

Liz Green, Sales Director of Britannia was equally delighted with the performance of Lime Property she said: "I was really nervous about selling apartments in the current market until I met Lime Property. However to sell 11 apartments in 30 days is unprecedented in all my 20 years in the industry from a new company.
